

TRANSLATION OF THE CRUCIAL PROVISIONS OF THE DIRECTIVE TEMPORARY PROTECTION 2001/55/EC

by Peter Pafitis
ppafitis@yahoo.co.uk

Article 5, §1: The existence of a mass influx of displaced persons shall be established by a Council Decision adopted by a qualified majority on a proposal from the Commission, which shall also examine any request by a Member State that it submit a proposal to the Council.

Translation: The provision of transposition is a copy of the text of the provision of the directive.

Article 5, §3: The Council Decision shall have the effect of introducing temporary protection for the displaced persons to which it refers, in all the Member States, in accordance with the provisions of this Directive. The Decision shall include at least:

- (a) a description of the specific groups of persons to whom the temporary protection applies;
- (b) the date on which the temporary protection will take effect;
- (c) information received from Member States on their reception capacity;
- (d) information from the Commission, UNHCR and other relevant international organisations.

Translation: The provision of transposition is a copy of the text of the provision of the directive.

Article 8, §1: The Member States shall adopt the necessary measures to provide persons enjoying temporary protection with residence permits for the entire duration of the protection. Documents or other equivalent evidence shall be issued for that purpose.

Translation: The provision of transposition is a copy of the text of the provision of the directive.

Article 8, §3: The Member States shall, if necessary, provide persons to be admitted to their territory for the purposes of temporary protection with every facility for obtaining the necessary visas, including transit visas. Formalities must be reduced to a minimum because of the urgency of the situation. Visas should be free of charge or their cost reduced to a minimum.

Translation: The provision of transposition is a copy of the text of the provision of the directive.

Article 9: The Member States shall provide persons enjoying temporary protection with a document, in a language likely to be understood by them, in which the provisions relating to temporary protection and which are relevant to them are clearly set out.

Translation: The provision of transposition is a copy of the text of the provision of the directive.

Article 17, §1:

1. Persons enjoying temporary protection must be able to lodge an application for asylum at any time.

Translation: The provision of transposition is a copy of the text of the provision of the directive.

Article 17, §2:

2. The examination of any asylum application not processed before the end of the period of temporary protection shall be completed after the end of that period.

Translation: The provision of transposition is a copy of the text of the provision of the directive.